PHARMACOLOGY BIOCHEMISTRY & BEHAVIOR

VOLUME 2 NUMBER 1 JANUARY/ FEBRUARY 1974

Influence of anticholinergic drugs on after-discharges and activity of epileptogenic foci in rabbit hippocampus. GUSEL, W. A. 1

Prevention of long-term memory formation by 2,6 diaminopurine. KOBILER, D. and C. ALLWEIS 9

Glucocorticoid anorexia in rats. SIMPSON, C. W., L. V. DICARA and G. WOLF 19

Effects of inescapable shock and shock-produced conflict on self selection of alcohol in rats. ANISMAN, H. and T. G. WALLER 27

Insulin effects on positively-reinforced lever pressing by rats. GROVE, R. N. and T. THOMPSON 35

Involvement of muscarinic and nicotinic receptors in behavioral tolerance to DFP. OVERSTREET, D. H., R. W. RUSSELL, B. J. VASQUEZ and F. W. DALGLISH 45

Brain amine levels and competitive behavior between rats in a straight runway. MASUR, J., S. CZERESNIA, H. SKITNEVSKY and E. A. CARLINI 55

Prolonged alcohol consumption in the rat: absence of retrograde amnesia for an avoidance response. WALKER, D. W. and B. E. HUNTER 63

Comparative effects of physostigmine and neostigmine on acquisition and performance of a conditioned avoidance behavior in the rat. ROSECRANS, J. A. and E. F. DOMINO 67

Environmental stimulation and fucose incorporation into brain and liver glycoproteins. DAMSTRA-ENTINGH, T., D. ENTINGH, J. E. WILSON and E. GLASSMAN 73

Ventricular infusion of norepinephrine and amphetamine: direct versus indirect action. SEGAL, D. S., C. MCALLISTER and M. A. GEYER 79

Deficits in instrumental responding after 6-hydroxydopamine lesions of the nigro-neostriatal dopaminergic projection. FIBIGER, H. C., A. G. PHILLIPS and A. P. ZIS 87

Impairment of avoidance performance by intrastriatal administration of 6-hydroxydopamine. NEILL, D. B., W. O. BOGGAN and S. P. GROSSMAN 97

BRIEF COMMUNICATIONS

Action of two hypothalamic factors (TRH, MIF) and of angiotensin II on behavioral effects of L-DOPA and 5-hydroxytryptophan in mice. HUIDOBRO-TORO, J. P., A. SCOTTI DE CAROLIS and V. G. LONGO 105

Microinjector for use in the autoradiographic neuroanatomical tracing method. EDWARDS, S. B. and E. J. SHALNA 111

Amphetamine isomers: influences on locomotor and stereotyped behavior of cats. NORTH, R. B., S. I. HARIK and S. H. SNYDER 115

Chlorpromazine dosage and duration of tonic immobility: biphasic effects. MASER, J. D., G. G. GALLUP, JR., L. E. HICKS and P. H. EDSON 119

Central catechol – and indolamine systems and aggression. MCLAIN, W. C., B. T. COLE, R. SCHREIBER and D. A. POWELL 123

A head-holder for inhalation anesthesia or resuscitation of rats. WEDEKING, P. W. and R. G. BABINGTON 127

A flexible technique for long term infusions in unrestrained rats. NICOLAIDIS, S., N. ROWLAND, M.–J. MEILE, P. MARFAING–JALLAT and A. PESEZ 131

A comparison of the locomotor effects of 5-hydroxytryptamine and 5-hydroxytryptophan administered via two systemic routes. JACOBS, B. L. and E. E. EUBANKS 137

Behavioral effect of intracerebrally injected carbachol on unrestrained cats. DECSI, L. 141

ANNOUNCEMENT

7–12 July, 1974. Paris, France. IXth International Congress of the Collegium Internationale Neuropsychopharmacologicum. 143

VOLUME 2 NUMBER 2 MARCH / APRIL 1974

Synthetic scotophobin: analysis of behavioral effects on mice. MALIN, D. H. 147

Some effects of chlordiazepoxide and chlorpromazine on response force in extinction. FOWLER, S. C. 155

Central serotonin involvement in the elaboration of the startle reaction in rats. FECHTER, L. D. .. 161

Cycloheximide induced amnesia and recovery as a function of training parameters. QUINTON, E. E. 173

Reactions to apomorphine and spiroperidol of rats with striatal lesions: the relevance of kind and size of the lesion. WOLFARTH, S. 181

Effect of pharmacologically-induced arousal on the evoked potential in the unanesthetized rat. FLEMING, D. E., D. E. SHEARER and D. J. CREEL 187

Differential effects of d-amphetamine on fixed ratio 30 performance maintained by food versus brain stimulation reinforcement. CAREY, R. J., E. B. GOODALL and G. F. PROCOPIO 193

Suppression of cocaine self-administration by extinction and punishment. GROVE, R. N. and C. R. SCHUSTER 199

Altered learning by recipients of brain extracts from trained and retrained donors. WEBSTER, J. C. and K. A. FOX 209

Morphine analgesia, two-way avoidance, and consummatory behavior following lesions in the mid-brain raphe nuclei of the rat. LORENS, S. A. and L. M. YUNGER 215

Short-term influence of intra-ventromedial hypothalamic administration of insulin on feeding in normal and diabetic rats. HATFIELD, J. S., W. J. MILLARD and C. J. V. SMITH 223

Anticonvulsant activity of Δ^8- and Δ^9-tetrahydrocannabinol in rats. MCCAUGHRAN, J. A., JR., M. E. CORCORAN and J. A. WADA 227

Elicitation of water ingestion in the Mongolian gerbil (Meriones unguiculatus) by intracranial injections of angiotensin II and l-norepinephrine. BLOCK, M. L., G. H. VALLIER and S. E. GLICKMAN 235

Behavioral tolerance to marihuana as a function of amount of prior training. OLSON, J. and B. CARDER 243

Long-term administration of d-amphetamine: progressive augmentation of motor activity and stereotypy. SEGAL, D. S. and A. J. MANDELL 249

BRIEF COMMUNICATIONS

Possible stimulatory role of brain dopamine in the copulatory behavior of male rats. TAGLIAMONTE, A., W. FRATTA, M. DEL FIACCO and G. L. GESSA 257

Effect of metrazol on brain norepinephrine: a possible factor in amnesia produced by the drug. PALFAI, T., P. KURTZ and A. GUTMAN 261

On the role of serotonin in apomorphine-induced locomotor stimulation in rats. GRABOWSKA, M. and J. MICHALUK 263

The effect of nitrites on isolation-induced agression in mice. GRUENER, N. 267

Puromycin as an inhibitor of rat brain acetylcholinesterase. MOSS, D. E., D. R. MOSS and D. FAHRNEY 271

Biochemical and behavioral effects of lesions of raphe nuclei in aggressive mice. KOSTOWSKI, W. and L. VALZELLI 277

ANNOUNCEMENTS

AIMS AND SCOPE

Pharmacology Biochemistry & Behavior will publish original reports of systematic studies in the areas of pharmacology, biochemistry, toxicology and behavior in which the primary emphasis and theoretical context are behavioral; and brief communications which describe a new method, technique or apparatus and results of experiments which can be reported briefly with limited figures and tables. Behavioral studies as such will not be published unless they are obviously pertinent and make a significant contribution to pharmacology, biochemistry or toxicology. A limited number of relevant reviews and theoretical articles, results of symposia, and more comprehensive studies as monograph supplements will also be published. Articles will be published in English.

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

Manuscripts should be sent directly to the Editor-in-Chief or to the most proximal Regional Editor for review and will be published within three months or less after formal acceptance.

STYLE OF MANUSCRIPT

General Form. (1) Manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate and should be typewritten, double spaced with wide margins on good quality paper. (2) The title page should contain: title of paper; author(s); laboratory or institution of origin with city, state, zip code and country; complete address for mailing proofs; a running head not to exceed 50 characters including spaces between words. (3) References, footnotes, and legends for illustrations (unmounted photographs) should be identified on the reverse with figure number and author(s) name; when necessary the top should be clearly marked. (5) Each table should be typed on a separate sheet and double spaced. (6) All dimensions and measurements must be specified in the metric system. Standard nomenclature, abbreviations and symbols, as specified by Royal Society Conference of Editors. Metrication in Scientific Journals, Am. Scient. 56: 159–164, 1968, should be used throughout. (7) Italics should not be used for the purpose of emphasis.

Title. The title should not be longer than 85 characters, including spaces between words.

Papers in a series such as: "Studies on . . . .I." will not be accepted.

Length of Paper. The Editors insist upon clear, concise statement of facts and conclusions. Fragmentation of material into numerous short reports is discouraged.

Abstract. Each paper submitted must be accompanied by an abstract, which does not exceed 170 words and must be suitable for use by abstracting journals. Abstracts should be prepared as follows:

LESTER, D. AND E. X. FREED. Criteria for an animal model of alcoholism. PHARMAC. BIOCHEM. BEHAV. A correspondence between the various components of . . . . .

A list of from 3–12 (or more) words or short phrases suitable for indexing terms should be typed at the bottom of the abstract page accompanying the manuscript. These terms will be printed with the paper at the end of the abstract.

Drugs. Proprietary (trademarked) names should be capitalized. The chemical name should precede the trade, popular name, or abbreviation of a drug the first time it occurs.

Footnotes. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively. Text footnotes should not be used, the material should be incorporated into the text. Table footnotes should be indicated in order of their appearance with the following symbols: * † ‡ §; for more than four footnotes, consecutive superior letters should be used.

References. Literature cited should be numbered in brackets in text (only one reference to a number) and listed in alphabetical order on a separate sheet at the end of the manuscript. Do not recite names of authors within the text. Journal citations in the reference list should contain the following: (a) surnames and initials of all authors (surname of first author precedes initials; initials precede surnames of all co-authors); (b) title of article; (c) journal title abbreviated as listed in the 4th edition of the World List of Scientific Periodicals; (d) volume, inclusive pages, and year. Example:

1. Abrams, R. and H. T. Hammel. Hypothalamic temperature in unanesthetized albino rats during feeding and sleeping. Am. J. Physiol. 206: 641–646, 1964.

Book references should be in the following order: author, title, city of publication, publisher, year, and page. Example:

1. Thompson, T. and C. R. Schuster. Behavioral Pharmacology. Englewood, New Jersey: Prentice-Hall, Inc., 1968, p. 297.

Citations such as "Unpublished observations," "Personal communication," "Manuscript in preparation," "To be published," should not be entered in the list of References, but may be noted in the text without serial numbers, in parentheses.

Illustrations. (a) Prepare for use in a single column width whenever possible. (b) All drawings for reduction to a given size should be drawn and lettered to the same scale. (c) All illustrations should be referred to as figures and numbered in Arabic numerals. (d) Lettering should be done in India ink or other suitable material and must be proportionate to the size of the illustrations if it is to be legible after reduction. Lettering should be sized so that its smallest elements (subscripts or superscripts) will be readable when reduced. (e) When possible all lettering should be within the framework of the illustration; likewise the key to symbols should be on the face of the chart. The following standard symbols should be used as they are easily available to the printer: ○ ● △ ▲ □ ■ + × . (f) Actual magnification of all photomicrographs should be given. Dimension scale should be indicated. (g) Sharply contrasting unmounted photographs of figures on glossy paper are required.

Tables. (a) Each table should have a brief heading; explanatory matter should be in footnotes, not as part of the title. (b) Tables must not duplicate material in text or illustrations. (c) Vertical rules should be omitted when possible. (d) Short or abbreviated column heads should be used. (e) Statistical measures of variation, SD, SE, etc. should be identified. (f) Analysis of Variance Tables should not be submitted but significant F's should be incorporated where appropriate within the text. (g) The presentation of tabular material should be minimized and, wherever possible, graphic illustrations should be used.

Formulas and Equations. Structural chemical formulas, process flow-diagrams, and complicated mathematical expressions should be kept to a minimum. Usually chemical formulas and flow-diagrams should be drawn in India ink for reproduction as line cuts.

All subscripts, superscripts, Greek letters, and unusual characters must be clearly identified.

Anesthesia. In describing surgical procedures on animals, the type and dosage of the anesthetic agent should be specified. Curarizing agents are not anesthetics; if these were used, evidence must be provided that anesthesia of suitable grade and duration was employed.

Proofs. Corrections to the proofs must be restricted to printer's errors only. Other than these, any substantial alterations may be charged to the author.

Reprints. Each author will receive with his page proofs reprint order forms which must be completed and returned with the proofs to the Editorial Office. Late orders cannot be filled since reprints are run at the time the Journal is printed. Senior author receives 25 reprints free.
